Established in 1907

Manglumukh Village a.k.a Anjiram Village Founded by Late Anjiram Daolagajao in 1907.

Manglumukh Village was founded by Late Anjiram Daolagajao in 1907 is a Dimasa Kachari Tribe Village. The name Manglumukh was derived from Manglu river and Dhansiri river. Where Manglu refers from “Manglu River” and Mukh or Bra refers to Confluence (a coming or flowing together, meeting, or gathering at one point i.e manglu and dhansiri river).

It was in 1907 that the Late. Anjiram Daolagajao established the village on the banks of Manglu river and Dhansiri river. Prior to this there were no villages within the perimeter of 20 to 25 kilometers. During that time Mr. A.N. Davis was the Deputy Commissioner of the Naga Hills then. The whole land or area was all covered by jungles and deep forest and infested with wild animals. Till the end of 19th Century there were no settlement of any other tribes in the area only Dimasa Kachari Tribe were early settlers in that area.

The land was fertile and the life in the village was going on smoothly but however after 15 to 16 years of village establishment the village was struck upon by natural calamities (such as no proper healthcare facilities etc.) and claimed many souls and lives of the village. Life become very difficult to live on the present site. Therefore, they shifted to Manglu-bra (“bra” means confluence in Dimasa language) thereafter, the village came to be known as Manglumukh, the village which was under Dimapur district. The Village was under Dimapur district till 2021 and now the District was changed to Chümoukedima district. The Chümoukedima district was created on December 18, 2021, and was inaugurated on June 29, 2022.

The place where Anjiram Daolagajao first established the village on the bank of Manglu and Dhansiri river, the place is now under Peren District of Nagaland.

According to J.H. Hutton tour diaries in the Naga Hills Date 8.1.1921 he says that “Manglu-mukh village has only seven houses” in 1921.
